Dear Sir:-

Would you kindly give me the names and addresses of two or three reliable collectors or buyers of coins to whom I could send a few old coins to have them appraise them for buying?

Would you also please state the steps necessary to become a member of your Society, and the annual dues?

Thanking you in advance for your courtesies, I am,

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of December 3rd has been duly received, and I am enclosing herewith a list of the principal coin dealers in this country, any of whom would appraise your coins.

I am sending you, under separate cover, a copy of the Constitution and By Laws of this Society, which explains the membership. If there is anything you would like to know, which is not in this book, we will be glad to furnish such information.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
